RAIL WAGE CONTROVERSY AGAIN BEFORE WILSON

EMPLOYES, RAIL HEADS IN HOPELESS DEADLOCK

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The whole rail wage controversy was placed before President Wilson today for the third time since railroad labor had demanded a general increase in wages last summer.

In a letter to the president, H. M. Jewell, chairman of the railway conference, which constitutes the labor party in the railroad wage board, said he regretted very much "to advise you of our failure to obtain any beneficial results from these conferences."

The employees, Mr. Jewell said, were very disappointed at the position taken by the railway executives concerning which announced last night a deadlock and the withdrawal of their demands from the conference.

Mr. Jewell did not ask the president to bring the wage controversy before the railroad wage board, which is to be organized by the president as provided in the transportation act and on which the public will have representation.

Attached to Mr. Jewell's letter was a copy of the letter setting forth the attitude of the men and the executive committee. H. T. White, for the railway executives, wrote that while no agreement as to wages might be reached by direct negotiations between representatives of the roads and the men the executives did not believe signs contemplated a settlement including so great an addition to transportation costs without the public bearing a portion of the conference.

Referring to this letter, Mr. Jewell said he believed the reason given by the executives for terminating the negotiations was "not in accord with our understanding of the law."

Other officials reiterated that in the request of the president they were asking to give the transportation an "equal trial" although they did not include any of its provisions. They took the position that with the break-up of the joint conference the conference was made more difficult since the union membership was becoming passive.

Trainmen Take A Strike Vote

CHICAGO, April 2.—Results of a strike vote cast by members of the United Railway, Trainmen, Telegraphers and Railway Rock Island and the Rock Island will be announced at 10 a.m. today, according to A. P. Whitney, president of the order. He denied that orders already had been issued for a general walk out at 6 o'clock yesterday evening and did not say what effective date should the walkout be given an affirmative vote.

Local unions are not involved, he said, and the ballot following the strike negotiations for altered conditions.

LEGISLATORS NOT BARRIED

CHICAGO, April 2.—Members of the legislature are not barred from the meetings of boards of education. Assembly General Priess said in response to E. B. Durbin, president of public instruction.

Though the experts also recommended that the soldiers and suffrage leagues be merged under the management of the new welfare department, the committee has not yet agreed upon this proposition. It is inadvisable in order to have further discussions on the experts' home plan, action with representatives of the G. A. R. and the American Legion.

Youngstown Has Car Wage Row

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 2.—Hopes for an amicable settlement of the car wage controversy have appeared again today with the appointment of a special committee to the steel workers' wage board for the third time in the course of the strike. The committee, composed of Mayor W. J. Watson, who stepped in yesterday, and the steel workers' wage board, will be in session at 10 a.m. today.

Attorney Gen. J. Palmer, 33, a Watson's legal representative for the steel workers' wage board, and Senator H. C. Smith, the attorney general, who will appear as the other.

PREHISTORIC SKELETON FOUND
SANTA FE, N. M.: Skeletons of a prehistoric man, which are believed to be 10,000 years old, have been found in a cave in the mountains of northern New Mexico.

Wears Patched Clothes

Representative Quin, photographed in his office in house office building, box lunch, patched clothes, rubber collar and all.

Representative Perry K. Quin of Mississippi has his ideas on how to cut the high cost of living and is carrying them out at the capital. He urges the wearing of patched clothes and rubber collars to cut clothing expenses and honest box lunches to fight the high restaurant prices.

Ruhr Valley Insurgents To Give Up Arms

Ye Speeders, Beware!

BAYTOM, O., April 2.—The county commission has passed an ordinance carrying a provision for a work house sentence to be imposed on automobile speeders.

Local officials reiterated that in the request of the president they were asking to give the transportation an "equal trial" although they did not include any of its provisions. They took the position that with the break-up of the joint conference the conference was made more difficult since the union membership was becoming passive.

Department Of Welfare Is Proposed

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Centralization of the duties now imposed as to a few extremist groups, particularly the government which manages the government troops have entered the Ruhr district at several points into a new department and that two workmen's delegates said that two workmen's delegates had been arrested while going to Essen for the conference.

The command of the communist troops before Wessel gave a pledge to the conference for the strict observance of the agreement. He declared he had a really good army but could not continue fighting because he lacked ammunition and asserted all fighting had been suppressed and that all soldiers had been shot.

Assurance was given the delegates, however, there would be no trouble. There is some apprehension felt as to the workmen's arms in the Ruhr district must make a delivery of their arms to local authorities before April 10, under the agreement reached between the government and the central committee of the workmen's general conference at Essen today. They will not be considered rebels if fighting ceases throughout the district by noon tomorrow.

ROAD IS CLOSED

Today contractors S. Monroe and Son Company started work on the two mile paving contract they have on Harrisonville pike and from now on until further notice that road will be closed to traffic. The contractors announced that there will be no detours as two other roads may be used to get to Harrisonville.

The two mile stretch starts on top of "The Divide" and extends two miles towards Harrisonville. The contractors are expecting to make rapid headway with the road construction but it will be at least four months before traffic over this road will be opened.

The two roads which may be used are the Narrows and Swallow Valley back of Sevierville. Instead of turning north onto Harrisonville avenue or Main's Run road at New Boston all who wish to go to Harrisonville will have to go to Sevierville and then turn off. Harrisonville pike is now paved from New Boston to the foot of "The Divide."

Officers Installed

Officers of James Dickey post, No. 125, American Legion, were installed Wednesday as a wolf attended meeting of former service men, held in R. of P. hall.

At the business session the members voted to initiate all members who come in after the membership campaign closes April 6. Part of the initiation will consist of examining questions relative to the American Legion. The Legion is also making arrangements to hold a musical organization here for an entertainment about April 28, the proceeds to go into the treasury of the local post. Last night's meeting closed with a stoker and social session. The next meeting will be held in two weeks from last night in R. of P. hall.

CUMMINGS ASSAIS THE G. O. P. MOVE FOR PEACE

WASHINGTON, April 2—Rep. Cummings is in the house completed to a vote to pass, to put through, a week ago, a bill to a resolution declaring war on Germany at an early date. The measure was favorably received today by the foreign affairs committee and will be taken up next Monday under a nine-hour debate, when it will begin the vote on Friday.

Actions of the Republicans drew the fire of Hon. S. Cummings, chairman of the national committee, who sent a telegram to press representatives in the Senate in which the lack of moral gravity to the Republican leadership has been exposed.

Cummings Alarmed
An attempt, he added, to use the Senate to pass a resolution first, and then to International Conference, to decide the outcome of which it is difficult at this time to conjecture. The resolution was reported on a straight party vote by the foreign affairs committee. Representative Hudnut, Democrat, of Indiana, refused to vote, but his colleagues on the committee all opposed the report.

The Republican leaders revised their plan to call the measure up Monday because of the probable absence from the Senate that day owing to the Easter holidays. They had no doubt that it would be adopted, although the Democrats were holding up against it, and were equally confident that the measure would carry it over a week if no vote could be obtained.

President Will Veto
A short conference, Mr. Cummings said, did not think "for one moment" that the President would sign the resolution. He said the house was attempting to exercise powers it did not have.

Positively the general political situation Mr. Cummings indicated that the Democratic leaders expected to be in a bind of the position in the coming campaign. He said that the president will be more popularly active in the campaign, he said. "He is imposed upon, and while he may not be popular in the stamp, he can still be popular, always to be heard in the campaign."

In Crisis

He said he had not discussed the crisis with the president but that he had much difficulty in ascertaining the president's position on questions which he does not know.

As far as the Democratic view of the campaign of Herbert Hoover is concerned, for the Republican presidential nomination, Mr. Cummings said:

It is always a bad thing to see an essential Democrat attempt to liberalize a dead party. Suppose we felt that way.

Mr. Cummings said he assumed that the leader of a more liberal faction of the Volstead prohibition committee would be before the Democratic convention and also the national convention.

General. This company has a ten-year record of successful operation, and today ranks twelfth among tire manufacturing companies in this country. In 1918 the policy was changed from manufacturing a medium grade product for the jobbing trade, to a high quality tire, which is now distributed through dealers direct. The number of branches was increased from four to fifteen. This transition resulted in a loss and expense of several hundred thousand dollars through the discarding of materials and machinery, liberal adjustments and the reorganization of the entire sales plans. Earnings for 1918 and 1919 were decreased to this extent. Under the new policy, because of better prices, a considerable reduction in the number of tires produced gives the same cash value in volume of business, and permits of a 100% expansion without material increase of investment in fixed property.

The company has an excellent fabric situation, having a supply, contracted for at low prices, sufficient to meet requirements for 1920. Tire prices were recently increased which should increase 1920 earnings substantially.

Earnings. The average net earnings for six years ending November 30, 1919, after Federal Taxes, were in excess of two times the annual dividend requirements of the preferred stock.

Mrs. Ruth Cox

A good woman was called to her last reward yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ruth Cox, beloved wife of Charles G. Cox, veteran B. & O. conductor, died at her home, 1742 Sixth street, after a lingering illness of several months. Her death is attributed to complications.

Mrs. Cox was born near Chillicothe April 8, 1882, consequently she was nearly 35 years of age. Her maiden name was McNeal, and in 1884 she was married to Charles G. Cox, who with one son, Frank, at home survive. Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McNeal, of Chillicothe, and two sisters.

Mrs. Cox was a good Christian woman, being a devout member of the Methodist church, with which she affiliated many years ago, and she leaves a wide circle of friends, who will mourn her离去 with sincere regret.

Funeral services will be held at the home at 6:30 this evening and will be in charge of Rev. C. E. Chandler. On Saturday morning the remains will be shipped to Frankfort, near Chillicothe, for burial.

Mrs. Rachel Tild
Rachel Tild, born in Scioto county, July 8th, 1882, died at Beaver, March 27, 1920, aged 37 years, 8 months and 21 days.

Easter Is Here, and—
You Haven't Bought Your Hat

Don't worry about that. You've one day, and that's a good time to pick a choice selection from a sea of ready-to-wear models in every style, color, and trim ready to don and to step into. Easter parades if passes government squares Sunday morning, immediately after church is over.

Portland and New England hats as to size, to the day before Easter, with such admirably adapted for casual wear, and for formal occasions, two perfectly models of great variety.

Let us help you select the right hat for the day. You will find the unusual and the new, and the trimmings, and the variety of styles of trimming, from the most to the most elaborate.

Here are some of the latest and most popular models of their beauty which may be seen in our showrooms, and are highly approved.

The Anderson Bros. Co.

World is full of such as he—self-sacrificing and unselfish and unappreciated.

John Cumberland, quite new to the screen but a familiar figure in such popular series as "Twin Beds," "Dad and Warner," "Parler, Bedroom and Bath," and "Up in Mabel's Room," plays the title role so skillfully and understandingly one suspends him of being a Jimmy Dodd himself. Gertrude Robinson returns to the screen in the role of his sweetheart, Emily, and others in the cast are Nell Tracy, Mary Charles, Eddie Lorraine, Inci, Marci and Frances Nelson. Mr. Henley directed the picture and Mrs. Sidney Drew wrote the scenario.

"Greater Than Fame," a stirring story of love and temptation. Starring Elsie Hammerstein, is the attraction at the Strand Tonight. Also News and Comedy.

Elsie Hammerstein, Schubert's charming star, has the leading role in "Greater Than Fame," a Schubert production which is to be shown at the Strand tonight. This drama of life gives this popular star a chance to display her superb qualities and her triadic ability, more, perhaps, than any other production in which she has appeared.

The story is pleasing, interesting, and in its screen adaptation every dramatic situation has been developed to advantage. There are, at times, bits of humor, to which Elsie Hammerstein responds charmingly.

The Fox News and comedy will be shown also.

At Last—The Picture You Have Been Waiting to See—Earle Williams in the Famous Book and Stage Success "The Fortune Hunter" is at the Eastland Theatre Tonight—Matinee and Night. An Irresistible Story You Will Always Remember.

If you should meet a girl who had a million dollars, was accomplished, good looking and likable in other respects would you try to argue yourself into loving her whether or not that represented your true emotion? Say to yourself that you did love her when convinced that you did love her and that you needed the money. Suppose that she then proposed to you. What would you do? Would you debate with yourself? Matrimony is purported to be that state of mutual bliss which tells time nor space nor eternity can effect. It's obviously a matter about which no hasty decision should be made. If you are confronted with such a problem "The Fortune Hunter" might help you to decide whether to marry the girl. It is a gripping picture with the versatile love master Earle Williams in the leading role. It will be presented at the Eastland theatre tomorrow, matinee and night.

After the girl proposes and you have accepted her you are arrested on a charge of burglary. You are in trouble. Josie Lockwood, your fiancee—the richest girl in town drops you flat. She calls you an impostor, a cheat and a common fortune hunter.

Come and see this charming picture tomorrow. No advance in price of admission and we will guarantee it to be the best picture we have shown since the new theatre has been opened. The third episode of the thrilling serial "The, the Fearless" will be an addition to tomorrow's program. Matinee starts at 1:30.

Armenia Today

For today Manager Pitts offers another diversified special feature. It is "The Trap" production which gives it a stamp of quality. "Love Letters" is the title of the feature film supported by an all-star cast of love players. "Love Letters" is a love drama of life and it will be sure to please. A one reel comedy segment to make you roll in laughter for fifteen minutes will also be shown making a six reel program with no admission.

At the Sun

The Love Doctor, one of the better one night stand musical comedies, will be presented at The Sun all next week.

This company comes very highly recommended, and the company is identically the same as when it was presented all season at $1.50 per seat.

The music is musical and includes the most popular hits of the day, and the chorus is young and well drilled.

Three shows daily, at 2:30, 7 and 9, and the last seat can be had at 50 cents.

At the Sun

The Blue Ridge Lassies, who have scored a splendid hit upon every appearance thus far at The Sun this week, offer a complete change of program for tonight and Saturday. The third and last of the delightful musical extravaganzas in their repertoire, starting at the matinee this afternoon, is "The Isle of Love," which is declared to fairly swirl with mirth and merriment and youth and "pop." The screen offering for tonight and Saturday is "The Devil's Riddle," a Warner Bros. super-production, starring Gladys Brockwell.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—With the Attorney General Palmer, who stands squarely against the League of Nations, and also in Chicago, said Mr. Cummings. "The peace treaty will be an important issue in the campaign. I have not the slightest doubt but that the San Francisco convention will endorse the stand of the president. Mr. Wilson, I hope, will be active in the campaign. If he cannot make speeches, at least he will write, and his writings will carry weight."

CINCINNATI, April 2.—A sensational attack on the methods of General Wood's milliners in the current issue of "The Labor Advocate" has created wide-spread comment. The article is given prominence on the front page under the above headlines. In part the Advocate said:

"For bold effrontery and brazen as-surance, the backers of General Wood stand without parallel in the once rock-ribbed Republican State of Ohio. With Garfield, Bixby, McKinley and Taft to its credit, the home of Sherman, Chase and Forney, and with a strong favorite son of its own well within reach of the Republican presidential nomination, Ohio is led by its votes when a member of the League taken by the local Chamber of Commerce, and by its votes before the League in regard to the referring of the bill to the Select Committee on Education and Labor."

RUHR VALLEY INSURGENTS AGREE TO SURRENDER ARMS

CUMMINGS ASSAILED THE G. O. P. MOVE FOR PEACE

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Despite the decisive defeat yesterday by the lower house of the legislature of the resolution to ratify the woman suffrage amendment, friends of the measure said today it was by no means dead, as a ratification resolution is still in the senate and the parliamentary situation is not such as to make it impossible to reconsider the vote in the house.

Suffragist leaders were greatly encouraged by the announcement late last night that Alfred J. Dupont would support the resolution and declared they would make every effort to have it reconsidered in the house when the legislature reassembles on Monday.

Until last night Mr. Dupont, who exerts a powerful influence in republican policies of the state, had assumed a neutral attitude in the suffrage fight and his announcement caused jubilation in the suffragists camp.

The suffragists claim the house has three legislative days to reconsider yesterday's vote and that if this fails, the senate measure can be brought into the house at any time for consideration if it is passed by the upper branch. Yesterday's vote of 23 to 6, they declare, was not an indication of their potential strength as they had 15 votes in line for the resolution if their party vote by the forces of the committee. Representatives Huland, Peacock, McMurtry, McMurphy, refused to be required to ratify. Should they vote for it, his colleagues on the committee would decide to reconsider. It is difficult at this time to conjecture.

The resolution was reported on a two-party vote by the forces of the committee. Representative Huland, Peacock, McMurtry, McMurphy, refused to be required to ratify. Should they vote for it, his colleagues on the committee would decide to reconsider. It is difficult at this time to conjecture.

Lower Republican leaders decided their plan to call the measure up Monday because of the probable absence of members on that day owing to the Easter holidays. They had no doubt that it would be adopted although the Democrats were holding up against it. Their victory and declared there was no possibility that Delaware would be assured two-thirds to carry it over a two-thirds vote could be obtained.

President Will Vote
In that connection Mr. Cummings said he did not think "for one moment" that the President would sign a resolution. He said the house, a carrier, C. C. Bennett, a parrot, was attempting to exercise powers of his office and C. C. Roberts, carrier, not present.

Discussing the general political situation, Mr. Cummings indicated that temporarily crippled as a result of Democratic leaders expected to their absence.

"I hope that the president will be able to participate actively in the announcement of Herbert Hoover," he said. "He is in no position to nominate Mr. Cummings and while he may not be presidential, he can still take the stump, he can still speak and he can always be heard,"

Political Democrat attempt to illegal stand party. Suppose we left that stand."

In Crisis
He said he had not discussed this with Mr. Cummings said he assumed that he would be in agreement with the president for that in the question of a more liberal, or less difficult in ascertaining position of the Volstead prohibition act, the president's position on question of enforcement act would be "before the San Francisco convention and also the San Francisco convention and also the San Francisco convention."

Asked for the Democratic view of the convention.

GOING THEIR OWN WAY

THE New York legislature has unseated the five Socialist members-elect. As to the merits of the charges on which they were ejected it is hard to form an opinion.

New York city papers carry themselves as though they were specially foreordained to direct the whole earth and all that operates therein. Harmony of purpose and expression is most unusual among them, however, though on this occasion they were as one in denouncing the move to oust the Socialists, thus making it quite impossible to gain from their columns a clear idea of what was the nature of the evidence offered. Even their combination was not enough to drive the legislators from their view of the matter, so we will have to give the latter credit for courage in action, if for nothing else. Structures now of the metropolitan press that they acted upon an original set schedule loses in value because the critics themselves set out to exculpate simultaneously with the filing of charges and kept steadily at it even unto the end.

CAN'T STOP THE RUNAWAY

THE New York World was the first to discover Hoover as a presidential candidate. 'Twas a wonderful bit of discovery and the World enjoyed a monopoly of it, for a time, and was correspondingly jubilant. It's fatal error was knowing so much about Hoover's multifarious filthiness and capacities for president and nothing about his politics. Yes, it was professedly ignorant thereof as Hoover himself, so it proposed, urged and insisted on him as a Democratic candidate.

Hoover was coy and kept up with the World's hoots for him, until one sad day when he made the discovery that he was more of a Republican than a Democrat. By the same token the World is glib, about as glib as the average Republican organ becomes whenever Hoover's name is mentioned nowadays.

As for the foolish Democrats they manifest a ridiculous jealousy in getting rid of Hoover as an incubus. They didn't want him, but somehow they were inflicted with a morbid fear that through some mysterious agency he was going to be thrust upon them unwillingly. That wasn't because they failed to appreciate that he had acted in a most effective manner in the war services with which he was charged, but because they had a hunch that as a Democratic candidate he would not do. So they readily and glibly turn him over to the Republicans as their sole and singular possession. No overwhelming testimony is presented that he is being received in his own household with fervid welcome. Still there he is, take him friends and don't treat him too rough, though it be too late that he is marked for slaughter.

BUT KEPT THEIR FEET

THE Mississippi legislature has refused to ratify the federal suffrage amendment to the constitution and thereby hangs a tale.

When the matter came up for consideration a lot of elegant and eminent Democratic national leaders seemed stricken with a sort of common hysteria and they telegraphed the solons to make a record for themselves and a ten strike for the party by having Mississippi as the thirty-sixth state to approve the amendment, thereby carrying its adoption. As it appears they were not at all moved thereby, but proceeded on the way that had evidently been determined.

Perhaps, it might have been good policies for the Mississippians to have decided, though we do not think so. Female suffrage is inevitably coming, but jumping into the band wagon isn't edifying. You may honestly differ in views and he who has the courage to go down with his flag flying serves his country best to the final end. The country should glory in the spirit of the legislators who had the spunk not to give way before the officious advice of party powers and superior clamer. What with domination by governors, party advisory committees and persistent propaganda legislatures are losing their proper functions and powers. They are a co-ordinating but distinctively independent branch of government. On them should be the main reliance of the people. Executives are to recommend and enforce laws; party advisory committees are solely for the steering of party affairs, any interference by them in legislation is essentially and inescapably evil; a persistent agitation is not always the voice of the public will and desire; party leaders are not always safe and wise advisers. The legislator who can think and act for himself, with a purpose to the common good, is the best asset.

Frequently is seen the report in newspapers that farmers are not putting out such extensive crops this year. There is no saying whether this has the foundation of fact or not, but certain it is that the farmer who does not sow and plant to the extent of his ability to cultivate and garner, is making a grave mistake in so far as his own fortune is concerned. Food prices are way up and they will stay up, for this year beyond question.

"Look here! Do you say I stole the five-dollar bill you lost?"

"No, I don't say that."

"Then what do you say?"

"Well, I say that if you hadn't helped me look for it, I might have found it."

According to Ethics

During the early part of the war a negro soldier was walking post in one of the big mid-western camps. A group of officers, among whom was the camp commandant, passed within a few feet of the dusky guard, who continued calmly oblivious. The irate general wheeled to the negro African and snapped: "Don't you ever salute officers?"

"Yes, salut' yas, salut'" chattered the half-bred negro.

"Then why didn't you salute me?"

"'Cause Ise got a gun, salut."

"Don't you know how to salute with your gun?"

"Oh, yas, salut' yas, salut' but this here ain't my gun."—The Home Sector.

wired J. H. Smith, general chairman of the organization at Roanoke, and

General Manager Jenkins of the Norfolk and Western as follows:

"Threatened strike of members of

Trainmen's Brotherhood on Norfolk and Western is illegal. Our organization will support and protect the present contract with the railroad until changed by constitutional methods."

Small Suit Case Lost

Officers of James Dickey post, No. 23, American Legion, were installed

Wednesday as a well attended meeting of former service men, held in K. of P. hall.

At the business session the members voted to initiate all members who come in after the membership campaign closed April 6. Part of the induction will consist of examining questions for relatives to the American Legion.

The Legion is also making arrangements to hold a musical organization here for an entertainment about April 28, the proceeds to go into the treasury of the local post. Last night's meeting closed with a smoker and social session.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks from last night in K. of P. hall.
